NOTE FOR: Director of Security

I had a meeting with Secretary of Labor Donovan a short time ago. Most of the conversation was personal .... reminiscing about the old days, etc.

There were a couple of items which I thought would be of interest to you. He commented that the briefing he had received from [redacted] was a very fine one.

STAT

We also had a discussion about the assassination attempt on the President. Donovan had gone to the Hilton with the President and intended to return to the White House with him. Fortunately for Donovan, some union delegates from New Jersey asked to see him for a few minutes so he advised the President that he would make his own way back. He then mentioned that he had received some threats and that he was thinking of establishing a protective staff. He added that Mr. Casey had offered to assist him by providing some personnel. It wasn't clear whether this was an offer to actually provide personnel or to assign some people to assist in setting up a staff.

He also asked if it was permissible to visit the Agency and have a look around. I assured him that such a visit could be handled. He said that when he could get the time, he would call me and arrange to come out for a visit. I'm not holding my breath on that one. If it happens, I'll notify you immediately to insure that the DCI is aware of such a visit.
